DISTRICT ROTARY NEWS:

Rotary Pedals Out Polio
Bike Ride
Wednesday, June 20 - Sunday, June 24, 2012

District 7370 of Rotary International (Central PA) is sponsoring a 380 mile bike riding tour of each community in the district that hosts a Rotary Club. The ride is to raise funds for Rotary's campaign to eradicate polio. The ride begins on Wednesday, June 20, 2012, in Ashland and ends its first day in Tamaqua (82.2 miles); Thursday, June 21, Tamaqua to Mt. Carmel (48.4 miles); Friday, June 22, Mt. Carmel to Sunbury (74.8 miles); Saturday, June 23, Sunbury to Hughesville (81.8 miles); and finally Sunday, June 24, Hughesville to Cross Forks (92.3 miles) where we will have a celebration with riders from Rotary District 7350 in recognition of our merger to become District 7360 on July 1, 2012.

April 27-29, 2012 District
Rotary Conference Grantville
Holiday Inn

Applications for District Conference are now available in the District 7370 Newsletter and the District 7370 website.

ROTARY MEMBERSHIP:

Keeping members involved in Rotary is another responsibility.
Fostering strong fellowship and encouraging early participation in service projects are two of the best ways to sustain a club's membership.
