November 12 – 5:15pm Church Street - new LHU Science Building tour with Rotarian Dr. Brent May.

Downtown Lock Haven Rotarians toured Lock Haven University's new 70,000-square-foot science center. Dr. Brent May, explained that the center was built on the site of the old Lock Haven Senior High School. The center faces on West Church Street, in Lock Haven's historic district neighborhood. Lock Haven University is advancing into the field of nanotechnology which is on the first floor along with geology and physics. The second floor houses biology, classrooms and faculty offices. The third floor houses chemistry, classrooms and faculty offices. There are labs on each floor. For more information
