January 28 5:15pm Avenue 209 Lou Bernard, Ross Library Adult Services – Historic Clinton County (Clinton County celebrates 175 years)

Lou spoke on the founding father of Clinton County, Jerry Church.

A book entitled, "Journal of Travels, Adventures and Remarks of Jerry Church," which was written by himself, and published by a firm in Harrisburg in 1845; had been reprinted in 1983 and is available for sale at the Ross Library for $1.75 to commemorate Clinton County's 175th celebration. "He wrote in his journal of his experiences and journeys from the time he quit school at the age of 13 until his departure of Lock Haven as he moved west. He emerges as an engaging, intelligent, likeable, energetic, adaptable, and irrepressible personality. He would have been an interesting fellow to know." Rebecca F. Gross Editor July 1, 1983.
