As members of the Kiwanis Club of Bald Eagle and Nittany Valleys (a one-year old club with 35 members) they spoke to Downtown Lock Haven Rotarians of their food drive to help the Salvation Army's "More than Bread" free meal program. They are speaking to community organizations throughout Clinton County asking for help with can and non-perishable foods. If interested in learning more about the drive Matt can be reached at 570 660-2540 and Bill at 814 883-3220.

MAKE-UP MEETINGS: I missed the March 12 meeting so went online to the Rotary eCLUB for a make-up session. www.rotaryclubone.org You are asked to read or view their literature for at least 30 minutes for it to be considered a make-up session. There is also a fee involved using PayPal or check. The topics I read for my make-up included "Building Better Business Relationships," "Value of Keeping Good Records," "How to Ask for What you Want," "Caring for a Loved One, Caring for Yourself," a video clip featuring the incoming International Rotarian President Ron Burton with the 2013-2014 theme Engage Rotary, Change Lives and "Feeling Guilty What a Shame." You can guess why I chose the last one! Each article was very informative and could be used in your personal or business lives. Now some of the information I knew, but it was good to read anyways. And my favorite – Value of Keeping Good Records reminded me that I need to hone my organizational skills (especially if anyone has seen my office.) Being a librarian, I also collected books titles from their bibliographies at the end of their articles. I plan to add some of the titles to the library's business collection. All in all I rated the program excellent and had fun reading the views of other Rotarians. Secretary, Diane.

Jerri's Sayings:

Bottom Line: Who is Rotary Ann?

Answer: Prior to a decision handed down by the United States Supreme Court in 1987, Rotary was a men's organization, and in many clubs, the wives of the members were called "Rotary Anns" With the Court decision in the eighties, and with more women in the professions than ever before, the term "Rotary Ann" began to fall out of favor and clubs of Rotary Anns disappeared. While the name "Rotary Ann" has not gone completely out of favor, wives are more commonly known as "Rotary Spouses" or "Partners."
