CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS

January – Rotary Foundation Month Program Chair - Diane Whitaker

Jan 31 - Dr. Wayne Allison, LHU New Dormitories

January 24 meeting– We met at Susque-View to have a short meeting and deliver the items we collected for the veterans.

17 Veterans Receive Gifts – Example of items included pens, small notepads, combs, body lotion, socks, puzzle books, crocheted scarves, shawls and lap robes.
Polident and toothpaste left for staff to distribute to those who use. We were asked not to include razors. Staff distributed the gift bags the following morning. This was our 1st attempt which went well. Comments - we should have a slightly more formalized plan for our next visit to Extended Care.

District Simplified Grant - An official decision has not been made yet for the distribution of the grant money.

District 7360 PR Grant - Deadline of 20 February 2012 This is a good opportunity to work with the other clubs on a project and Sue has volunteered to be our coordinator/liaison. Jerri will advise the other club presidents and Brent Jones that we are interested in working on the project with the other clubs, but we do not want to be the lead club on this project.

Bottom Line: What is the Cold Chain?

ANSWER: Transporting vaccines to developing areas is no easy task. See a slideshow that explains the cold chain created to distribute polio vaccine in even the most remote areas.
