The second portion of the program was on Membership with Wendy Stiver. “I was thrilled to see the welcome to Rotary sign, greeters,” said Wendy. She played a Rotary game with the members. She passed around a Rotary pin box asking each one to take a pin and challenged each member to wear it every day, bring it back next week and exchange it for another.”Think Rotary, Speak Rotary, we are small but mighty, how can we grow!” she said. Members were asked “Is our meeting place a drawback? When was the last time our membership grew? What did it feel like?” And remember, invite a friend or colleague to the “Ethics in the Workplace” meeting September 24 at Ross Library 5:15pm.

DT LH Face book: Rotary Club of Downtown Lock Haven

Bottom Line: What is Interact?

Answer: Interact is Rotary International's service club for young people ages 12 to 18. Interact clubs are sponsored by individual Rotary clubs, which provide support and guidance, but they are self-governing and self-supporting. Each year, Interact clubs complete at least two community service projects, one of which furthers international understanding and goodwill. Through these efforts, Interactors develop a network of friendships with local and overseas clubs and learn the importance of Developing leadership skills and personal integrity; Demonstrating helpfulness and respect for others; Understanding the value of individual responsibility and hard work; and, Advancing international understanding and goodwill. As one of the most significant and fastest-growing programs of Rotary service, with more than 10,700 clubs in 109 countries and geographical areas, Interact has become a worldwide phenomenon. Almost 200,000 young people are involved in Interact. (Rotary District 6710) For more information visit www.rotary.org
