August 6: Club Assembly followed with an Executive Meeting

This included two extensive planning meetings, back to back, and attended by all.

Each week's meeting begins with:

the Pledge of Allegiance; Reciting of the 4-Way Test and a prayer.

There were no anniversaries or birthdays for the month of August.

100% Attendance in July (Combination of Meetings and/or Events)

Jerri Alrich, Jeanne Baker, Gail Nestlerode, Paula Neyhart, Betty Schantz, Wendy Stiver, Diane Whitaker, Scott Schaefer, Honorary Member

Below is a description of what happened at the Club Assembly and Executive Meeting.

Unfinished Business

- Members scheduled their time to help at the Hometown Hero Banner Program on Saturday, August 17, 2013. This is our signature project – supporting our veterans.
- The Golf Tournament scheduled for Thursday, August 22, 2013 was also in need of workers for various registration and hole sitting events. Suggestion provided was to create a Rotary information card to place in the golfer's bags.

Reports

- Treasurer's report was filed for audit.
- Membership report by Wendy Stiver – the program on the African missions was well received and we had four prospective members attend.
- Service Projects by Sue Foust – The security camera is ready for installation. A suitable place has been selected and approved. This project is to help stop vandalism happening at the Tiger Den Community Playground.

Reports

- Foundation by Jeanne Baker – Our goal is to have every member give a donation to EREY
- Web Page by Scott Schafer with Lana Kephart (Consultant) – Diane is going to visit KCNet and view their software
- Facebook with Gail Nestlerode and Jerri Alrich updating the page.

Reports

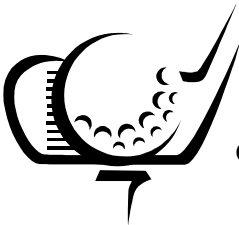

- Facebook - Gail Nestlerode and Jerri Alrich are updating the page.
- Programs reported by Diane Whitaker include: August Betty Schantz, September Diane Whitaker; October Sue Foust; November Wendy Stiver; December – Diane Whitaker; January – Jerri Alrich .

Reports

- The Downtowner, edited by Diane Whitaker, has a new look.
- The Scrapbook - Jerri Alrich and Jeanne Baker will work on the scrapbook for 2013-2014.

Presidential Citation & Strategic Planning

- The 2013-2014 Presidential Citation was presented to the members. Some discussion followed.
- A Strategic Planning goal was to revisit the strategic plan every quarter. Members reviewed the goals set forth to see if we were on track. Growing membership is a top priority as well as striving for more diversity – male and the young.

There is still time to sign up a team of four for golf!

Bottom Line: Did our new RI President, Ron Burton, own a business at the age of 13? Was he a student at the University of Oklahoma? Was he a former President of University of Oklahoma Foundation Inc.? or Did he retire in 2007 – a lifetime career at Oklahoma?

Answer: Yes – to all of the above. Watch a profile of RI President Ron Burton or read about Ron Burton in the July Issue of The Rotarian or For more information visit www.rotary.org

Next Week's Question? What vital role is at the core of Burton's beliefs?

Answer in the next "The Downtowner!"
