December 14 Meeting

What a great time was had by all who helped wrap gifts for our 3 teens and their father. Thank you all.

Thank you to Donna for contacting Children & Youth and getting our family this year. Many folks take families with young children; few will take the older teens. With Donna's insight we had a family of 3 teens that will have a Very Merry Christmas.

A big Thank You to member, Betty Schantz who fed us to "over stuffing." It was all de-licious!!

That was our last meeting for the year. Be watching for an e-mail from Jerri on our upcoming January meetings.

Spotlight on Paula Neyhart

A charter member of our Downtown Lock Haven Rotary Club, Paula has been a part of educating people for a bit more than forty years – first as an elementary school teacher and second, as well as concurrently since August 1993, as owner of an educational shop called The Bus Stops Here. Paula earned her bachelor's degree and additional credits at Lock Haven University. She continues attending seminars and workshops at Columbia University's Teachers College in New York City as part of her "ongoing learning curve."

Paula's daughter, Jodi, is a Group Vice President for Macy's and travels throughout the United States, including Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. Paula and her husband, John, have their fourth St. Bernard; Sofie was rescued from the Lock Haven SPCA and is between seven and nine years old due to the attention and loving she receives from The Neyharts.

Learning, being active, and doing things that put "a smile on her face" keep this lady busy. Paula is also a member of Delta Kappa Gamma and appreciates the support of fellow Rotarians with her educational shop.

Why do some members of the Lock Haven Rotary Club wear red-bordered name badges?

Answer: These red-bordered name badges are worn by new members so long time members of the Club chat with them and make them feel welcome. From Loretta Coltrane in response to Jeanne Baker's question.

Next Weeks' Bottom Line – What are the lyrics in The Cowboy Logic song that inspire RI President Ray Klinginsmith and led to his adoption of this as his theme song?

Answer: In next week's The Downtowner.
